

G'DAY G'DAY

Words and music by Rob Fairbairn

G'day G'day and how ya goin',
whadda ya know, well strike a light.
G'day G'day and how you goin'
just say G'day, G'day, G'day and you'll be [right.

Isn't it great to be an Aussie takin' a walk along the street.
Lookin' in shops or buyin' a paper
and stoppin' and havin' a yarn with people [that you meet.

Down at the pub or at a party whenever you're stuck for what to say - if you wanna be dinky di,
why don't you give it a try,
look 'em right in the eye and say G'day - [Pause

G'day G'day and how ya goin',
whadda ya know, well strike a light.
G'day G'day and how you goin'
just say G'day, G'day, G'day and you'll be [right.

Now when Italians meet they all go crazy,
the blokes all like to hug each other too,
the yanks invented 'Hi' and 'See ya' later' while Pommy will shake your hand and say How do you do?

Now watch out for a Frenchman or he'll kiss [you
the Spaniards go for o-la and o-le,
but in the land of the Cockatoo cork hats and a didgeridoo
when you meet an Aussie -
'ten to one' here's what he'll say - [Pause]

G'day G'day and how ya goin'
whadda ya know, well strike a light.
G'day G'day and how ya goin'
just say G'day G'day G'day and you'll be [right.

It's a greeting that you'll hear across [Australia
from Geraldton to Gove and Gundagai, it's as dinkum as the Dingo and the Dahlia,
and you'll spell it with a G apos-troph-e [a 'Dee - Aye - Wye' - [Pause]

G'day G'day and how ya goin'
whadda ya know, well strike a light
G'day G'day and how ya goin
just say - G'day G'day G'day G'day G'day [G'day
G'day G'day G'day and you'll be right!
